

Device Manager

In this Lab I wanted to open device manager for possible configuration, this is a tool that can be used to help fix bugs and or troubleshoot issues with performance and hardware. Within the device manager menu to help troubleshoot issues I'm able to View driver details, update driver, disable devices, or uninstall devices. All of the options can be helpful in eventually resolving issues for the end user.

